MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Eloise R. Page
Deputy Director, Intelligence Community StaffSUBJECT: Proposal for a Short-duration Project Under the DCI's Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program

1. Recommended Action: That you approve the attached proposal (Attachment B) for a short-duration project under the DCI's Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program (EIAP), and that you sign the attached memorandum to the Executive Director/CIA (Attachment A) announcing your decision.

25X1 2. Background: The attached short-duration (ten-months) project proposal by [] has been reviewed both by his parent agency (CIA) and by an Intelligence Community Staff panel, and is recommended for your approval for the following reasons:

- The project deals with an issue of major interest to the Intelligence Community--Japanese science and technology information. Specifically, the project examines the accessibility of such information [] and, if successful, will propose a collection strategy for improving collection and analysis of Japanese technological development affecting the U.S. economy. 25X1
- The project should enhance the applicant's value as a career intelligence analyst. As constructed it should provide extensive exposure to sources, collection activities within the U.S. Government, and U.S. corporate experience in dealing with the Japanese.
- Adequate funding is available in the EIAP budget for the estimated cost [] of the project. 25X1
